enthusiastlc people were in the little city of Pickens the last day and all enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. They were out for fun and pleasure and they got it. The crowd was orlerly and good-natured.

The exhibits of stock, farm products, chickens, fancy work, and in fact, everything exhibitd was fine and well displayed.

In the individual farm prodict exhibit R. B. Byars won irst prize with B. A. Allgood a lose second and J. B. Finley well up in the running. The contestants in the agricultural ine for other prizes had good tuff on exhibition. We are orry that a county display was not gotten from these exhibits o send to the State Fair.
